The Schuhmann Center

Counts for July: Men 935
Women 317
Children 277
Families assisted with food 48

During summer months the Schuhmann Center Food Pantry is in short supply of staple food items. On the four Sundays of August each family of the parish is asked to bring canned peas, carrots, mixed vegetables, canned fruit, canned pastas, Spaghetti O’s, Beeferoni, canned tuna, meat, chili, pasta and pasta sauce, pancake mix, pancake syrup, macaroni and cheese, and jelly. Only these items are needed at this time. Please place your family’s donation in the bin in the back of church on the Gray Street side of the church.

The Schuhmann Center is in need of children’s school uniforms and school supplies, especially: pens, notebooks, binders, loose-leaf paper, folders, crayons, rulers, scissors, calculators, backpacks, and tote bags. Please pray for the success of our work and the people we serve.

Ê RELIGIOUS ED NEWS: Ê

Religious Education Classes
Our Sunday morning faith formation program for young people in grades kindergarten through high school will begin again in less than a month – on Sunday, September 8th, to be exact. Again this year the classes will begin at 11:15 and end at 12:30. Our enrollment fee is a big-family-friendly $50 for one child/teen and $95 for two or more. We look forward to seeing all of our students back for the new school year and hopefully among them, some new faces. Please call the Rectory if you’d like us to mail you an enrollment form or if you wish to register your child to receive a sacrament this year.

EWTN Host to Speak
Acclaimed Catholic speaker, husband, father and co-host of EWTN’s Life on the Rock, Doug Barry, will be in Louisville for one night – on Sunday, August 25th, from 7 to 9 p.m., at Saint Patrick’s Church. Doug’s dynamic style will inspire, engage, challenge and energize youth and parents in a bold new way. A donation of $5 per person or $10 per family is being asked for this event. For more information, please contact: Rebecca at downscian8@gmail.com (396-6219) or Kathy at mullaney8@gmail.com (241-0120).

Did You Know?
This week we celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, who the Church teaches was assumed body and soul into heaven by her divine son Jesus. (Solemnities are the highest-ranking days on the Church calendar.) Only God can rise from the dead of his own divine power, so Jesus assumed himself ascended into heaven. But he assumed, or raised, his mother at the end of her time on earth. This teaching can be clearly seen in Saint Martin’s Ascension and Assumption murals on the inside walls of our sanctuary. While in the Ascension mural Jesus is shown rising up to heaven totally, to be exact. Again this year the classes will begin in less than a month – on Sunday, September 8th, to be exact. Again this year the classes will begin at 11:15 and end at 12:30. Our enrollment fee is a big-family-friendly $50 for one child/teen and $95 for two or more. We look forward to seeing all of our students back for the new school year and hopefully among them, some new faces. Please call the Rectory if you’d like us to mail you an enrollment form or if you wish to register your child to receive a sacrament this year.

Parish Picnic!
Mark your calendars for Saturday, August 31, 2013! From 4 PM to 10PM, please join fellow parishioners at St. Martin of Tours for this year’s picnic. Bring a dish and enjoy a potluck dinner along with hamburgers and hot dogs provided by the parish, a beer garden, a Cub/Boy Scout fun tent, an inflatable bouncer and games for the young ones, activities and movie for the teens, as well as late-night trivia for the adults. Both inside and outside seating will be available for this fun-filled and enjoyable event. For additional information or to sign up to assist, contact Louis Rabaut via e-mail at louis.rabaut@gmail.com.

Congratulations to Emily Johnson, a student at Holy Angels Academy who was named the 2013 National Right to Life Oratory Contest winner. Emily competed against students from across the U.S. at the annual National Right to Life Convention in Dallas, Texas. She is the first student from Kentucky to win the national contest!
