Angels in Disguise "Do You See What I See?"

Classical Christmas Concert with Sujeet Desai at the Brown Theatre on December 12th, 2015 at 7:00 PM. Sujeet is an accomplished musician, able to play eight different instruments! Sujeet is the recipient of over a dozen of International awards for his music and self-advocacy. He has become a fantastic role model for people with Down syndrome and he was the first musician with special needs to play at Carnegie Hall! The evening includes special guests - the Miracle Dancers, the St. Mary's Center Bell Choir and more! Come - Celebrate the GIFT of Down syndrome. Contact Sara at sara@angelsindisguise.net or 502-551-7433 for $15 tickets.

The Golden Arrow Center

Volunteers are always needed to sort donations, perform intake interviews with clients, fill client orders, do light office work, pick-up donations, knit baby blankets and write thank you notes. If interested in learning more about our outreach ministry and how you might get involved please call Emily at Nolan 550-5584.

Save the Date: Saturday, December 5th 5-7 PM and Sunday, December 6th 9AM-2PM. The Golden Arrow Center will hold its "Purse and Jewelry Sale" to benefit the mothers and children served by the Golden Arrow. New and gently used purses, totes, wallets, briefcases, computer bags, backpacks, children's items and jewelry will be available at bargain prices. Many new items in stock. Thank you to Dillard's for their donation to our event. Please make plans to join us and bring your friends! Coffee and refreshments will be served. Many great Christmas gifts available!

At this time we are in desperate need of baby wipes, baby wash and diapers in size Newborn and size 4, 5 & 6. Thank you for your continued generosity!

"Help the mother, help the child!"

The Schuhmann Center

The Schuhmann Center assisted the following in October:

Men	682
Women	291
Children	294
Families Assisted With Food	53

PLEASE NOTE: The Schuhmann Center will not be distributing Christmas Food Baskets this year partly due to a smaller and aging volunteer staff. If you have been collecting food for this purpose please continue to hold onto it as we will be presenting a new idea with the baskets after the first of the year for continuing to help the clients and their children. Many thanks for your patience and help.

We are in need of plastic grocery bags and large paper bags.

The items most needed by the food pantry are pancake mix, syrup, canned pasta, canned fruit, jelly, and soup (no chicken noodle).

The Schuhmann Center is staffed by a group of mostly aging volunteers with health concerns. We have recently lost some of those volunteers because of health and other reasons. The Schuhmann Center is a volunteer agency. We cannot exist without volunteers. We are in need of replenishing our ranks with some new and dependable individuals. To help please call Jim Nix at 589-6696.

Please pray for the success of our work and the people we serve.

Religious Education Classes are taking a break this Sunday, November 29th, in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday. Classes will resume meeting again next Sunday, December 6th.

Rite of Welcoming

This Sunday at the 9:00 Mass during the Rite of Welcoming we will formally welcome six candidates into our parish RCIA program. These individuals have decided to continue on in the study process, working toward full initiation into the Catholic Church. Please continue to keep them in your prayers!

Children's Christmas Eve Nativity

Sign-ups for our annual Children's Christmas Eve Nativity scene begin next week. This little pageant will be presented at the end of the 5:30 Christmas Eve Mass. Please look for the sign-up sheet on the table in back of church. There will be one practice for this Nativity Pageant and it will take place on Wednesday morning, December 23rd at 9:30 a.m.

"CATHOLICISM: The New Evangelization" Class

Our adult class that meets every Sunday in the Golden Arrow classroom beginning at 10:20, is currently watching and discussing a new series, Bishop Robert Barron's CATHOLICISM: The New Evangelization. This series is a follow up to Bishop Barron's original CATHOLICISM series that our class viewed last year. No registration is required to attend these classes and everyone is welcome! Coffee and refreshments are available.
